More than 50 volunteers will meet at Watkins Park Family Center for the First Annual Dr. King Day of Service, sponsored by the Indiana Civil Rights Commission, Indiana Black Expo, Inc., the City of Indianapolis and Indy Parks.

Volunteers will have the opportunity to assist with various indoor and outdoor projects at the Watkins Park Family Center, the Flanner House, IPS School 44 and cleaning alongside Edgemont Avenue and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Street.

The King Day of Service is intended to both improve a neighborhood in Indianapolis and act as a catalyst for individuals to get involved in other projects in Indiana. Any media coverage of this volunteer opportunity is greatly appreciated and vital to its effectiveness!
